Dear Mr. Eckerd:

Duleep Deosthale, Assistant Dean, International Programs at Marist College, suggested that I write to you. He spoke with me recently regarding your European Division and the work it is doing on worldwide telecommunications.

I am very interested in exploring employment opportunities with EDS, particularly in the European Division. I know that EDS has entered, and continues to aggressively penetrate, telephone markets worldwide. And since I have a design and engineering background, as well as some solid experience in other related areas, I believe I could be a genuine asset to your organization. I followed my Bachelor's Degree in Physics at
